

WARKWORTH MUSEUM

CHANGES TO THE MUSEUM'S RULES

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS - FRIENDS OF THE MUSEUM BECOMING MEMBERS

Do I still get free entry?

The person who holds the membership has free annual entry to the museum, but family members are not included and would need to pay entry fees.

If I am a volunteer but not a member, do I still get free entry?

No. You would need to pay entry fees if visiting the museum outside your voluntary role.

Are there family or child membership categories?

No. These Friends categories have not been transferred to membership categories. Whilst reviewing its marketing strategy, the museum may look at different types of entry packages.

What rights do members have?

Financial members of the Society have the right to one vote at Annual and Special General Meetings.

Do members receive newsletters?

Yes, members will receive newsletters.

Can I give a donation to support the museum without becoming a member?

Yes. The museum always appreciates support from the community.
